OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:

STUDENT,

v.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY OFFICE OF EDUCATION and LOS ANGELES
UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH CASE NO. 2013010151

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS
COMPLAINT

On January 8, 2013, Student filed a due process hearing request<sup>1</sup> (complaint) naming the Los Angeles County Office of Education (LACOE) and the Los Angeles Unified School District (District).

On January 11, 2013, LACOE filed a notice of insufficiency (NOI) as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.<sup>2</sup> The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.<sup>3</sup> These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.<sup>4</sup>

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”<sup>5</sup> The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.<sup>6</sup> Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.<sup>7</sup>

DISCUSSION

LACOE contends that Student has named two respondents, LACOE and the District, but not alleged any facts specific to LACOE. In particular, LACOE argues that Student has not alleged facts to show that LACOE has any responsibility to Student, has participated in any decision making regarding Student or has provided any special education services or placement to Student.

Contrary to LACOE’s position, Student alleges that Student is currently attending a LACOE Central Juvenile Hall school. Student’s complaint specifies which of the alleged violations involve past events and which continue to the present school year (and Student’s present placement). For example, Student alleges that both respondents have failed to assess Student appropriately and provide appropriate counseling services up to and including the present school year.

The facts alleged in Student’s complaint are sufficient to put LACOE on notice of the issues forming the basis of the complaint against LACOE. Student’s complaint identifies the
